Dear Ms. Best:

This is an interim response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated May 21, 2019, for any/all documents that pertain to the WikiLeaks website or organization from January 2006 to the present, including by not limited to emails, memos, notes, briefings, reports and other documents related to, mentioning or generated as a result of:

- Guidance and instructions for employees regarding visiting the website or otherwise reading or learning about it in the news
- Internal reactions to the website's existence and disclosures
- Efforts to identify, investigate and/or mitigate potential leaks to the website
- Efforts to identify, investigate and/or mitigate potential unauthorized viewing of the website or news reports analyzing it and/or its contents

We received your request on May 23, 2019 and assigned it case number FOIA-0226-2019. Please use this number in all future correspondence with us about this matter.

We will be unable to respond to your request within the FOIA's 20 day statutory time period due to unusual circumstances. These unusual circumstances could be: (a) the need to search for and collect records from a facility geographically separated from this office; (b) the potential volume of records responsive to your request; and (c) the need for consultation with one or more other agencies which have substantial interest in either the determination or the subject matter of the records. For these reasons, your request has been placed in our queue and will be worked in the order the request was received. Our current administrative workload is in excess of 1,600 requests.

We regret that there is currently a substantial delay in processing requests and solicit your patience and understanding. We assure you that we will process your request as soon as possible. If you have any questions, you may contact the DIA FOIA Requester Service Center, as well as our FOIA Public Liaison at 301-394-5587.

Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer.
